

POLICY ANALYSIS AND MANAGEMENT MINOR

Brooks School of Public Policy

Program Website (<https://publicpolicy.cornell.edu/undergraduate/study/minors/>)

Program Description

The Brooks School offers a 15-credit minor in Policy Analysis and Management (PAM) for Cornell undergraduates outside of the Brooks School majors.

Students can tailor the minor to focus on a specific policy area or opt for a broader range of courses for a general overview of policy analysis.

For inquiries, please contact the Brooks Undergraduate Program (BrooksUGProgram@cornell.edu).

Admissions

To declare any minor within the Brooks School please fill out the Intention to Minor in the Brooks School of Public Policy form (https://cornell.ca1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_cwLBeF0Wa4RINK2/).

Program Policies

- There can be no substitution for any of the required courses.
- Students must enroll in the PUBPOL section of the course. Cross-listed sections are not applicable.
- Students must earn a grade of B- or better in every course. S/U will only be accepted if it is the only grade option available.
- PUBPOL Special studies courses (PUBPOL 4000, PUBPOL 4010, PUBPOL 4020, PUBPOL 4030) do not count towards the PAM minor.
- Policy Analysis and Management (PAM), Public Policy (PUBPOL) and Health Care Policy (HCP) majors are not eligible to complete the Policy Analysis and Management minor.
- Keeping track of courses required and completed is the student's responsibility. Students will not be assigned a Brooks School advisor.

Once a student enrolls in their final course, students must complete the Application to Graduate with a Minor in Brooks form (https://cornell.ca1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_9mNsNB9cbs6OM1U/).
